1 FORMAL TITLES OF NDLOVUKAZI CYNTHIA PUNA KHUMALO MZILIKAZI III

- Ndlovukazi (“Great She-Elephant”) – Queen Mother of the AbeNtungwa and AbeMbo Kingdoms.
- Ingonyama (“Lioness”) – Symbol of protective leadership in the Khumalo–Mzilikazi lineage.
- Mama Wezizwe (“Mother of Nations”) – Unifier of 21 African nations and diaspora communities.
- Queen of the Mzilikazi–Nkulume Royal Kingdom – Custodian of the Ndebele Kingdom’s heritage.

2 ROYAL LINEAGE AND HERITAGE

- Direct descendant of historical King Mzilikazi kaMashobane Khumalo (founder of the Ndebele Kingdom in Zimbabwe) and Nkulumanzi Khumalo (last sovereign king before British colonization).
- Mzilikazi was a Mntungwa general who broke away from Shaka and formed his own kingdom. He is remembered as a great military leader and a key figure in Southern African history.
- Daughter of Queen Mother Ndlunkulu Thobeka Gladys Mncube and King Manasi Khumalo, cultural leader and guardian of Ndebele traditions.
- Member of the Khumalo royal clan, central to Ndebele governance and heritage preservation.
- In essence, while both share the name Mzilikazi, Queen Cynthia Puna Kumalo Mzilikazi is a modern-day leader in South Africa, distinct from the historical figure who founded the Ndebele Nation in Zimbabwe.
- Founder of the Mzilikazi Nkulume Royal Kingdom and Nkulume Foundation
